

BRIDAL GUIDE

These recycled, organic and all-natural products make a stylish statement.

Vintage and handmade items add a charming touch.

1

2

3

4

5

6

1 Frames made of reclaimed wood, $10 each, by UncommonGoods, uncommongoods.com. 2 Water-soluble, biodegradable soap in various colors, $10 per six-cup bag, available at Beaucoup, beau-coup.com. 3 A fun t-shirt and tank top set made of 100% organic cotton for all the gals, $32 each, by Weddingish, weddingish.com. 4 Soap with personalized wrappers in lavender, vanilla-almond, oatmeal, goat milk and lemon verbena scents, $4 each, by SunFeather Natural Soap Company, sunfeather.com. 5 Bridal bouquet of organic white roses, white mini calla lilies and white hypericum berries mixed with locally grown blue hydrangea, peonies, ferns and geraniums, with a cascade of antique lace, $275, designed by dvGreen, dvgreen.com. Organic flowers provided by Organic Style, organicstyle.com. 6 Guest book made of 100% recycled, dye-free paper, made in an eco-friendly facility using recycled water, $70, by Twisted Limb Paperworks, twistedlimbpaper.com. Refillable antique silverware pen, $25, by Close the Loop, closetheLoop.com. Invitation with green handmade paper wrap and leaf-motif sticker, about $300 for 100, and favor card with two heart tags made of flower seeds, about $180 for 100, both using at least 30% recycled paper, by Naturally Ever After,